May 9th – May 24th, 2026

Main Tour (Day 1 to Day 11)

TOUR PRICE: US$4998 SINGLE SUPPLEMENT: US$1250

Okinawa Extension (Day 11 to Day 16)

TOUR PRICE: US$4698 SINGLE SUPPLEMENT: US$560

Explore Japan, where every moment is crafted to give you moments to discover and enjoy the warm, welcoming heart of this incredible country. In Tokyo, explore the immersive worlds of TeamLab Planets, savor a comforting vegan ramen lunch, and wander Kappabashi Kitchen Street with its endless culinary delights. Share smiles and sushi as it glides by on the conveyor belt, a fun introduction to Japan's playful side.

In Nagano, the spring landscape of Yudanaka at Jigokudani Monkey Park comes alive with playful macaques. Watch them interact, groom, and explore their forested home and delight in their lively and curious charm. Walk the historic Nakasendo Road from Magome to Tsumago, where traditional villages along a time-honored path enchant you with stories of centuries past, and an evening at a local inn embraces guests with a welcome rooted in tradition.

Extend your adventure to Okinawa, where island life unfolds with a welcoming spirit. Explore the grandeur of Shuri Castle, the quiet reverence of Tamaudun Mausoleum, and the lively energy of Kokusaidori and Makishi Public Market. Descend into the mysterious beauty of Gyokusendo Cave and stroll through the lush Southeast Botanical Gardens. Experience sacred Sefa-Utaki, reflect at the Peace Memorial Park, and enjoy the heartfelt performance of Ryukyuan dance with Okinawan Dinner. Marvel at the wondrous variety of marine life at Churaumi Aquarium, and feel the ocean's embrace while snorkeling at Cape Maeda, also called the Blue Cave. From bustling cities to serene forests and sunlit islands, every step of this journey embodies omotenashi: Japan's spirit of thoughtful hospitality, creating opportunities to make unforgettable memories.

Old Nakasendo Road 【Walk from Magome to Tsumago (9 km/3 hrs)】

Today, you will transfer to Magome by local train & Bus.

Then, walk from Magome to Tsumago (9 km / 3 hours).

Today, you will walk from Magome to Tsumago on the Old Nakasendo Road, which was once the main route used by travelers during the Edo period. The road between these two towns is one of the Nakasendo's most well-preserved sections – a mix of dirt path and cobblestone, and the post towns of Magome and Tsumago have been continually maintained in their traditional Edo period style.

After your arrival in Tsumago, we transfer from there back to Nagiso.

Okinawa Breakfast

Okinawa【Former Japanese Navy Underground Headquarters / Okinawa Cooking Class / Awamori Distillery Tour / Kokusaidori / Makishi Public Market】

After breakfast, we visit the Former Japanese Navy Underground Headquarters to walk through tunnels that once served as a command center during WWII and gain insight into Okinawa's wartime history.

Next, you will learn to cook a simple local dish in an Okinawan cooking class.

From there, we tour an Awamori distillery to see how Okinawa's signature spirit is made.

We then browse Kokusaidori, a shopping street and entertainment center bursting with modern Okinawa culture, featuring shops and restaurants with broad international appeal.

While there, we explore Makishi Public Market, where local vendors offer fresh produce, seafood, and everyday Okinawan favorites.

Okinawa【Sefa-Utaki / Okinawa World - Gyokusendo Cave / Peace Memorial Park / Himeyuri Peace Museum / Ryukyu Dance and Okinawan Dinner Show】

In the morning, we visit Sefa Utaki, one of the most sacred sites in the Ryukyu Kingdom, where stone pathways and forested overhangs create a peaceful and spiritual atmosphere.

We proceed by exploring the underground world of Gyokusendo Cave at Okinawa World, filled with limestone formations and illuminated passageways.

Next, we visit the Peace Memorial Park, which remembers the high cost of the Battle of Okinawa and of WW2. It features the Cornerstone of Peace, which records the names of all the combatants lost in the battle, regardless of nationality.

Near the Peace Park is the Himeyuri Peace Museum and Monument, which recalls the bravery and sacrifice of 222 female high school students and 18 teachers who served as front-line nurses during the battle.

We end the day with an immersive Ryukyu dance and Okinawan dinner show, complete with traditional music, colorful costumes, and local dishes.

Okinawa Breakfast

Okinawa【Tamaudun Mausoleum / Shuri Castle / Southeast Botanical Gardens / Mihamra American Village】

After breakfast, we explore the royal legacy of the Ryukyu Kingdom at Tamaudun Mausoleum, a UNESCO-listed resting place built for the Ryukyuan kings in the 1500s.

Next, behold the beautiful Shuri Castle, which is a cultural landmark of old Ryukyuan architecture. The exterior of the main hall has been fully rebuilt after a fire in 2019 destroyed it (and several other buildings), and the interior is expected to be completed next year.

Afterwards, we will wander through the Southeast Botanical Gardens, home to tropical flowers, towering palms, and peaceful walking paths.

Lastly, we visit Mihamra American Village, a lively seaside area filled with shops, cafés, and bright evening lights that blend Okinawan charm with a playful resort-town atmosphere.

Okinawa【Okinawa Churaumi Aquarium / Snorkeling at Cape Maeda - Blue Cave】

Today, we visit Okinawa Churaumi Aquarium, home to one of the world's largest tanks and famous whale sharks gliding alongside manta rays. Learn about Okinawa's rich marine ecosystems as you explore coral displays and deep-sea creatures.

Then, we head to Cape Maeda for snorkeling at the Blue Cave, where the sunlight entering the cave reflects off of the sea bed and makes the water seem to shimmer with blue light. This area is known for its calm coves, schools of tropical fish, and some of the clearest waters in Okinawa that are enjoyed by beginners and seasoned snorkelers alike.
